Questions about cancer?

When you, a family member or someone you know is diagnosed with cancer, you may have many questions. If you live in West Sussex and need support, there are many services that can help you.

Your GP surgery

GPs will provide information and discuss what to download from www.nhs.uk. It might be a leaflet about your specific cancer, or information about the effects of treatment. You can also do this yourself by visiting www.nhs.uk/ipp

Your local hospital trust

A Macmillan Support Worker will assist you by providing general information and support about cancer and services, to help you to make informed choices.

Benefits advice and support with money worries

Macmillan West Sussex Welfare Benefits Advice can answer one-off enquiries and provide information, on-going welfare advice casework, help with preparation of appeals and representation or referrals to other specialist services, such as debt advice, where appropriate.
